What do students have to say about ENGL 99T?

- I believe that joining 99T really helped my writing improve.
- This was really helpful and I can't wait to take English 99T again next semester!!
- This program is very helpful; I will recommend it to my friends, and my tutor was amazing! Thank you :) <3

Interested in ENGL 99T?

Sign up for class #1543 by Sept. 4, 2024

Please note: English 99T is credit/no credit and does not count towards your GE units, but it will count towards total units for financial aid and scholarships.

What is ENGL 99T?
- ENGL 99T is a 1-unit, Credit/No Credit course* that gives you a reserved weekly tutoring session with a peer-tutor in the Writing Center.

Who is it for?

Every writer at Sonoma State!
- Students in courses that are writing heavy, or that are designated Writing Intensive Curriculum courses.
- First year students who might want someone to help them with their writing assignments, and with understanding their syllabuses, Canvas courses, and more!

How does it work?
- Sign up for the class, then contact us to make appointments that work with your schedule.
- You'll meet with the same tutor each week at the same time, on the same day.
- Complete just ten appointments to earn your unit of credit!

During your tutoring sessions, your tutor can help you:
- Better understand your assignments
- Plan and organize your writing tasks
- Break down prompts; brainstorm and generate ideas
- Cite sources in research-based writing
- Increase your confidence & command of writing at a college level
- Work through college level readings
- AND LOTS MORE!
